Fractions is a notoriously difficult concept to teach.

In this workshop a range of teaching strategies and specific aids will be presented, along with some games and activities designed to make learning fractions a little easier.

Participants will be given the chance to make some of the games and teaching aids used in the workshop.

Both teachers and parents will benefit from this session and will leave the session with a range of new skills and a wealth of invaluable information.

Presenter: Dr Paul Swan is a senior lecturer at Edith Cowan University Joondalup campus where he works in the Kindergarten through Primary program. As part of his work he and his colleagues run a maths clinic for children experiencing difficulties in mathematics. He is an award-winning author (The Maths Dictionary – Maths Terms and Tables recently won an award from Parents in the United States). He has written several other practical books – most of which are available from DSF Literacy Services.
