Dyslexia (a Specific Learning Disability in Reading) is characterised by a difficulty with reading and spelling. These difficulties are unexpected in relation to a child's age, level of schooling and other abilities.

This workshop will provide participants with an understanding of the defining features of reading disorders and will focus on the functional impact of Dyslexia, demonstrating effective strategies for use both in and out of the classroom.

Presenter: Mandy Nayton is currently the Executive Officer of DSF Literacy and Clinical Services. She is an Educational and Developmental Psychologist as well as a qualified teacher with extensive experience in the field of educational and counselling psychology. Mandy assesses children, teenagers and adults struggling with the acquisition of effective literacy skills and recommends appropriate classroom-based and individual strategies.
