

Having a learning disability or difficulty can be very challenging. Not only does it affect a student's academic performance, but it can also have a significant and long lasting effect on a student's psychological development.

This workshop will show how to identify and assist students in the classroom who may be experiencing anxiety as a result of some level of learning difficulties. Suitable for all school teachers.

Presenter: Kelly Fullarton is a Psychologist at DSF Literacy and Clinical Services. She assesses children, teenagers and adults struggling with acquisition of effective literacy skills and recommends appropriate classroom-based and individual strategies. Kelly is passionate about finding practical and often stress-free strategies to improve literacy skills in children and adults.

CANCELLATION POLICY

DSF Literacy Services has a 'no refund' policy. The exception would be when a Professional Learning Course had to be cancelled by the Foundation. All other requests for cancellation will be invited to re-register for another session. Late cancellation (less than 48 hrs) will necessitate the Foundation deducting an administration fee of $25.00 and transferring the balance to another Professional Learning Course.
