

Learn how to write a well-structured essay using a specific model designed to:

-  Analyse & discuss how themes are represented in text;
-  Identify the techniques used by authors to construct these themes; and,
-  Discover how readers are positioned to think and feel about the identified themes

This workshop will focus on the process of Text Analysis and three different types of text:

Feature Film ,

Novel and

Feature Article

*This workshop is suitable for year 10 students who are considering doing 2A/2B English next year as well as those students in year 11 who are currently studying the 2B course. In addition, year 12 students can attend the course as an excellent form of revision for their upcoming mock and ATAR examinations.

Presented by: Jenny Baker, a well-known Speech Pathologist who works exclusively with children and young adults who experience reading, writing and spelling difficulties.
