

"Systematic phonics instruction is critical if children are to be taught to read well, whether or not they experience learning difficulties."

Australian National Inquiry into the Teaching of Literacy (2005)

A series of inquiries both in Australia and overseas have found that all children benefit from systematic, direct and explicit phonics instruction, which enables them to master the alphabetic code and become proficient in foundation level reading and spelling.

Participants in this workshop will examine the criteria of an effective phonics program and will develop skills in delivering a structured, synthetic phonics program from phonemic awareness through to complex spelling patterns.

Note: This course is closely linked to the DoE English Scope & Sequence documents

This is essential knowledge for all pre-primary, primary and – in growing numbers - secondary teachers.

Presenter: Mandy Nayton is currently the Executive Officer of DSF Literacy and Clinical Services. She is a practising psychologist and qualified teacher with extensive experience in the field of educational and counselling psychology. Mandy assesses children, teenagers and adults struggling with the acquisition of effective literacy skills and recommends appropriate classroom-based and individual strategies. She also runs numerous courses on literacy acquisition and learning difficulties both for DSF and in association with the University of Western Australia's Child Study Centre.

CANCELLATION POLICY

DSF Literacy Services has a 'no refund' policy. The exception would be when a Professional Learning Course had to be cancelled by the Foundation. All other requests for cancellation will be invited to re-register for another session. Late cancellation (less than 48 hrs) will necessitate the Foundation deducting an administration fee of $25.00 and transferring the balance to another Professional Learning Course.
